

ARTICLE 32.00
INTERPRETATION AND APPLICATION

Section 32.01 INTERPRETATION

In the interpretation and application of the provisions of this Ordinance, the minimum requirements for the public health, safety, morals and general welfare shall be held to be adopted as and for said provisions. This Ordinance is not intended to repeal, abrogate, annul or in any way impair or interfere with any existing provision of law, other than those portions of or applications of conflicting ordinances hereby repealed. In such instances when this Ordinance imposes a greater restriction than is otherwise provided by law or by existing ordinances, rules, regulations or permits, the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply and control.

Section 32.02 PLANNING COMMISSION

The Frenchtown Township Planning Commission is hereby constituted and designated as the planning commission or zoning board to which reference is made in Section 11, Act 168, Public Acts of 1959, as amended, and in Act 184, Public Acts of 1943, as amended, and shall perform the duties thereunto appertaining as provided by statute, including without limitation the duties in connection with the amendment of this Ordinance.

Section 32.03 RIGHTS AND REMEDIES CUMULATIVE

The rights and remedies provided in this Ordinance are cumulative and in addition to any other remedies provided by law.
